MARY LYDIA LEE HAUSEY

Mary Lydia Lee is loved by all because of her unusual ability to care for the ill and aged.

Lydia was born to Orson Henry and Rachel Ann Jones Lee on April 15, 1889, in Heber, Utah.

She spent her early life in Wasatch County and attended school there.

On September 20, 1920, she married George H. Hausey of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in Le Grande, Oregon.

Since his death, February 27, 1950, she has devoted her entire time to the operation of a rest home for aged women.

The old Abraham Hatch residence at 81 East Center, at first proved adequate, but later she found it necessary to remodel and use her home on First West.

During the nine years of service with her gifts of kindness, tolerance, mercy, compassion and encouragement, she has brought joy and comfort to 25 patients.

p.388

Wave 12 Apr '79

90th Birthday Party

The family of Lydia Hausey is honoring her with an open house for her 90th birthday.

The open house will be at her home 44 West 1st South, Sunday April 15, from 2 to 6 p.m.

Lydia was born April 15, 1889 at Elkhorn, Utah to Orson Henry and Rachel Ann Lee. She married George Hausey, the 20th of September 1920.

She has served in most of the auxilary programs of the church. She was called to serve in the Relief Society presidency when the 1st ward of the church was organized in San Louis Obispo, California.

She opened the first Rest Home in Wasatch County and operated it for 19 years until she reached the age of 80 years.

No gifts, please.

ould a 1978 duplex with an asphalted driveway, two car garage, garbage disposal and all that other useless junk, replace the beauty of an old building?

Thinks of it, folks. Hand carved doorways. Soot still on the kitchen ceiling from the old coal stove. Faulty wiring installed by somebones grandpa in the 1920's. Hardwood floors that creek under your Dingo boots. An old canning jar stuck under the basement and you'll hear Georg next door snoaring. Pull open the door and you'll probably get th door handle in you hand. Walk too hard o the floor and the chea carpeting will wea through.

To me a true hear break, besides the sud den disappearance o Clark Kent, is to se someone tear down a old building. No matte what anyone says, I ca see no justification i it. After all, they aren' making old building anymore.

Lydia Hausey

95th Birthday

Wave 12 Apr 1984

The family of Lydia Hausey is honoring her with an open house for her 95th birthday. To be held at her home, 44 West First South, Saturday April 14, from 2 to 6 p.m.

Lydia was born April 15, 1889 at Heber, Utah to Orson Henry and Rachel Ann Jones Lee. She married George Hausey the 20th of September 1920.

She opened the first rest home in Wasatch county and operated one for 19 years until she retired in 1969 at the age of 80.

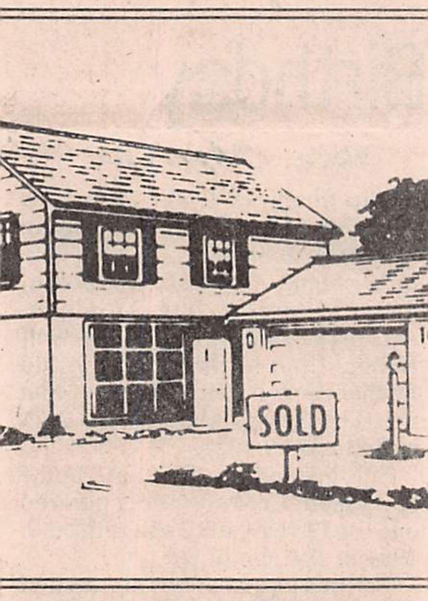

Friends and relatives are invited to attend. No gifts please.

Lisa Buehner returned home from the New York Rochester Mission recently. Her homecoming address will be April 15 in the Charleston Ward at 10:45 a.m.

Elder Horner

Elder Nile Horner has just recently returned from the Indiana Indianapolis mission. A welcome home will be held in his honor April 15, 1984 at 12:20 in the Heber 1st - 6th - 9th Ward Chapel.

All friends and relatives are invited.

Golden Years

LYDIA LEE HAUSEY

"Mary Lydia Lee Hausey is loved by all because of her unusual ability to care for the ill and aged." This quote was lifted from the book "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains". That book was published by the Wasatch County Daughters of Utah Pioneers in 1963.

When I went to interview Lydia on June 29, 1979, she sat in a chair partly surrounded by many well cared for house plants. She had her cane near by, and looked her nicest well groomed self, as we all remember her. She was waiting for her nephew, Kennith Lee and his wife, to take her to town for shopping.

Lydia was one of the 7 children born to Orson Henry and Rachel Ann Jones Lee, she was born April 15, 1889 in Heber, Utah. She spent her early life on a farm at Elkhorn, now known as Hailstone. The farm was just above the Jordanell North of the Provo River. In those days, the farms and homes in that area were comfortable, well kept properties.

Lydia attended school in Wasatch County, and was known to be a good student.

Three years before her marriage, Lydia worked as a waitress in the Denver - Salt Lake R.R. Restraunt in Salt Lake City, Utah. It was there that she met George Henderson Hausey known as Jack to his friends; he was from Batton Rouge, La. His work was with the Railroad. They were married on September 20, 1920 in LeGrand, Oregon.

Since his death, Feb. 27, 1950, she has lived in Heber City, Utah. During these intervening years Lydia was the first to open a "Rent Home" for the elderly in Wasatch County, she made the "Ladies" happy by letting them do as much as they were capable of doing for themselves and one another, she promoted good feelings and a sense of pride in each person who came to live with the group. They moved to her home on 1st West where there was more room, and she continued to care for the ladies until she was 80½ years old and had to retire.

While living away from Utah, Lydia kept up with her church work.

When the church was first organized in St. Louis Obispo, Calif., she was the first Relief Society President. Since returning to Utah, she has served in each of the Auxiliary organizations of the LDS church. She was, also, an active charter member of the Utah Valley Garden Club.

At age 90, Lydia keeps her own home nice and enjoys having afternoon visits with her friends and relatives who are so kind to her.

Thanks, Lydia, for the help you have given to this community.

Ruby

clothing, plants, and other aspects of life on the Missouri frontier in the 1830's.

He is a graduate of Ogden High School and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Weber State College in 1967. He was awarded a Master of Arts in creative writing and a Ph.D. in English from the University of Washington at Seattle.

He has been on the staff of Central Missouri State University at Warrensburg since 1972.

Although he is an active member of the Mormons. Rather, [...] wanted to weave a[...] adventure story cente[...] ed around the attitu[...]

Heber A[...]

The Heber Aerie an[...] Auxiliary are plannin[...] their 2nd Anniversa[...] Party to be held Satu[...] day and Sunday, July [...] and 8. It will be held [...] the State Park Chalet [...] Midway.